Customer Reviews

I ordered this book for several reasons including my own passion for owning, playing and collecting vintage guitars. The photos in this book are stunning as is the variety of examples shown. This is also a very good reference for those interested in custom colors and which also shows how much variation exists in the same model guitar in the same color from the same year. I recommend this book to anyone who appreciates great works of art.

If you are a vintage guitar player or collector than this is the book too buy,they are all there,Gibson,Fender,Guild,etc in beautiful pictures captured,this collection of vintage guitars is unbelievable,all guitars are from the period before 1970 and they are all in mint condition,if you can not find you're most loved guitar in this book you will not find it.....a must for guitarlovers!

IF YOU LOVE GUITARS, This is a MUST READ... i found myself SKIPPING over the pages and pages of beautiful guitars just to follow the commentary. But I'm gonna go back and look at them RIGHT NOW :-)

Need to see the ULTRA-RARE Fender marauder with 4 hidden pickups? ITS HERE!

Need to see the FIRST strat ever to have a solid rosewood neck? ITS HERE!

Want to see the most GORGEOUS tele collection in the world? Gibsons, Gretschs, Rickenbackers - They are all HERE!

And not just RARE guitars... PRISTINE examples of DROP DEAD BEAUTIFUL guitars!!

Great catalog of guitars that have passed through or found a home in Norman's Rare Guitars in Los Angeles.
