Customer Reviews

Within a few minutes, the tape gives examples of long phrases, and does not repeat any word or phrase. This CD is way too advance for someone who does not already know some Spanish.

First of all, this program was written in the 50s and has a whole section on sending a telegraph. Secondly, if you are a beginner, this program is impossible to follow. Lesson 1 starts with: Hello; Hola. How are you? Como esta? I would like to make an appointment to speak with Mr. Gonzalez; ????? It continues in this vain mixing in simple words and then complete sentences that do not incorporate those words. My wife and I listened to the whole program once and will never use it again. A waste of money even at the $5 I spent.

This is a cd of english to spanish words, followed by phrases. I found it hard to follow and easy to ignore. I tried giving it away to a friend wanting to learn spanish and he gave it back! Possibly may be better for someone with a base understanding already?

The product arrived in good shape and was as described. The included text was in excellent shape and the CD's were virtually unused. The recordings themselves were probably originally done over 25 years ago, maybe 40, judging from the content (telephone booth, razor blades, etc.) but still quite useful. I am totally satisfied with product and service.
